

Capitalism and Work

Cardiff University
January 12th 2011

The Centre for Global Labour Research invites you to participate in this one day conference to mark the contribution of Professor Theo Nichols to the sociology of work. The conference will be organised around themes reflecting Theo's contribution and we are seeking submissions to the conference that will address these themes. It has been agreed that a selection of papers from the conference will be published in Work, Employment and Society, a journal that once was edited by Theo. (All papers will be subject to the normal reviewing and editorial processes.)

The conference themes include:

1. Capitalism and Work
2. Capital and labour / class relations
3. Sociology of Management and Management Ideology
4. Work, Health, Safety & Well-being
5. Sectoral Studies
6. Critical Perspectives on Productivity and Performance
7. Labour Relations in Comparative Perspective
8. Workplace Ethnography

A buffet lunch will be provided free of charge and participants can purchase a place at the evening meal to mark Theo Nichols' retirement. Details of the evening event will be sent to those indicating that they wish to attend.

Confirmed Contributors include Huw Beynon and several of Theo's ex-PhD students.

If you want to participate in this event please complete the attached form and e-mail it to Cams@cf.ac.uk.

Those wishing to offer academic papers related to these themes are invited to submit a detailed abstract of between 1,000 & 1,500 words to Surhan Cam CamS@cf.ac.uk by September 13th 2010.

Full papers will be submitted by December 17th 2010 to allow distribution ahead of the conference.

Those wishing to submit their papers for refereeing by Work, Employment and Society will have until February 14th 2010 to produce a final draft.
