

Sociology

Editorial Board 2011-2013

Call for Applications

We are seeking ten new members of the Sociology editorial board to serve for three years from January 2011 to end of December 2013.

Prospective Editorial Board members:

- Must be nominated by a current BSA member
- Must be a BSA member or join BSA at time of nomination
- Must have experience of being published in refereed journals
- Must have refereed a minimum of three articles for a peer-review journal
- Should not be members of the editorial board of more than one BSA journal at a time.

Nominations are accepted from any area or specialism within sociology, although expertise in the following areas is particularly welcome:

- Comparative sociology
- Crime and deviance
- Employment, work and labour markets
- Ethnicity
- Family
- Leisure
- Medicine and health
- Political sociology
- Religion
- Science and technology
- Social Theory
- Stratification
- Urban sociology

Please note:

- The editorial board meets twice a year in London.
- The BSA will reimburse editorial board members for all reasonable UK travel costs incurred as a direct result of their attendance at board meetings.
- We do not allow more than two board members from the same institution on the board at any one time. Please see information on current board members to the right.

How to apply

Prospective board members and their nominators should complete the pro forma application form available on the BSA website: <http://www.britsoc.co.uk/publications/pubsvacancies.htm>

Submit the completed form by email to e.ettorere@liverpool.ac.uk by 18 October 2010.

Please contact Elizabeth Ettore, Chairperson, if you would like further information about the role e.ettorere@liverpool.ac.uk

Confirmed editorial board members 2011

Pamela Abbott
University of Aberdeen

Shane Blackman
Canterbury Christchurch
University

Julie Brownlie
University of Stirling

Sin Yi Cheung
University of Birmingham

Eric Harrison
City University London

Sally Hines
University of Leeds

Nabil Khattab
University of Bristol

Derek McGhee
University of Southampton

Linda McKie
Glasgow Caledonian

Andrew McKinnon
University of Aberdeen

Sarah Neal
Open University

Gary Pollock
Manchester Metropolitan University

Louise Ryan
Middlesex University London

Carol Vincent
Institute of Education