

Sociology
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
MISSISSAUGA

The Department of Sociology, University of Toronto Mississauga, invites applications for a full-time tenure-stream appointment at the Assistant Professor level with primary interests in Gender and/or Work starting July 1, 2011. A secondary specialization in any of the following areas is an asset: Socio-Legal Studies and/or Criminology; Political Sociology; Globalization; and Culture. A Ph.D. in Sociology or a closely related field is required. Candidates must have an evidence of excellent research and teaching record. Salary is commensurate with qualification and experience.

The appointment is at the University of Toronto Mississauga (UTM), which is a research-intensive institution having an interdisciplinary commitment, a multicultural student body, and a modern and spacious campus. The University offers the opportunity to conduct research, teach and live in one of the most diverse cities in the world. The University also offers opportunities to work in a range of collaborative programs and centres of research.

Successful candidates will teach in the undergraduate program at the University of Toronto Mississauga. They will also be a member of the Graduate Department of Sociology, University of Toronto and will be expected to develop an independently funded program of research and teach in the graduate program at the downtown campus. Additional information on the Department can be obtained at www.utm.utoronto.ca/sociology (for undergraduate studies), and www.utoronto.ca/sociology (for graduate studies).

The University of Toronto is fully committed to academic excellence and welcomes applications from all qualified individuals. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community. The University especially welcomes applications from visible minority group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas.

To be considered for this position, please apply online at the University of Toronto Academic Career Opportunities site www.jobs.utoronto.ca/faculty (job # 1000495) by clicking on the link below. Application materials should include a Curriculum Vitae, a writing sample, a teaching dossier, and a statement outlining current and future research interests. Materials can be scanned into one and/or two documents for easy attachment.
