

HUMAN REPRODUCTION STUDY GROUP 2010-2011

1. Current Membership Figure: c. 140

2. SG Expenditure: Nil
SG Income: Nil

3. Aim/s of SG:

The Human Reproduction Study Group brings together academics interested in all aspects of the sociology of human reproduction.

4. Review of Year:

The group's AGM was held at the BSA Medical Sociology conference in Durham.

A JISC mailing list was begun in October which has been popular and has over 140 members.

5. Forthcoming events:

There will be a study group conference on June 15th 2011 and this will be held at The Open University at Milton Keynes. Details regarding registration and submission of manuscripts have been made available on the BSA website.

6. Convenor/s Name/s:

Dr Sarah Earle

Dr Samantha Murphy

7. Contact E-mail:

s.earle@open.ac.uk

s.l.murphy@open.ac.uk

8. SG weblink:

<http://www.britsoc.co.uk/specialisms/Human+Reproduction.htm>