

BSA Early Career Forum Regional Event: Between the discourse of ‘resilience’ and death by committee – Reclaiming collective spaces for academic resistance

Date: 4 May 2018, Friday, 8.30am to 6.30pm

Venue: Newcastle University Business School, Partner Room

Lunch and evening wine reception included

Programme

8.30–8.50am	Registration; coffee/tea
8.50-9.00am	Introduction
9.00-9.20am	Critique in the neoliberal university : conditions of (im)possibility	Jana Bacevic, University of Cambridge
9.20-9.40am	Precarity, gender and care in the neoliberal academy	Mariya Ivancheva, University of Leeds
9.40-10.40am	Resilience & responsibility in UK Higher Education: A neoliberal sleight of hand?	David Webster and Nicola Rivers, University of Gloucestershire
10.40-11am	National University Senior Management Survey findings (tentative title)	Carl Walker, University of Brighton
11-11.20am	Precariat rising: Building strategies for collective resistance to casualised academic labour	Catherine Oakley, University of Leeds (on behalf of The Academic Precariat collective and the UCU Anti-Casualisation Committee)
11.20-11.40am	Outcomes-based performance management in higher education and how to successfully resist it: the example of ‘Raising-the Bar’ at Newcastle University	Nick Megoran, Newcastle University (on behalf of Analogue University writing collective)
11.40-12.00nn	Title TBC	Ellie Harrison, University of Dundee
12.00-12.40nn	Discussion	All
12.40-1.30pm	Lunch
1.30-1.45pm	Zine-making workshop Intro
1.45-4.30pm	Zine-making
3pm	Coffee/Tea
4.30-5.30pm	Discussion/Sharing	