

Programme Grid 2024

Wednesday 11 September
11:30-13:25: Lunch-Rootes Building

Room	0.09 Furniture movable	0.10 Furniture movable	0.08 Furniture movable	0.17 Furniture movable	0.11 Furniture Fixed	0.13 Furniture Fixed	0.18 Furniture Fixed	0.19 Furniture Fixed	0.20 Furniture Fixed
Stream		Spare Room	Experiences of Health and Illness	Health Service Delivery	Lifecourse	Pedagogy and Methods	Diagnosis, Screening and Treatment	Open	Inequalities and Intersectionality
Chair
13:25-13:55	ECR Event		Delegitimation, stigma and multiple selves: How (perceived) limited understanding of endometriosis amongst significant others shapes women’s lived experiences Caroline Law De Montfort University	Ward rules, privileges, and cultures of control: the intersections of race, gender, and class in the care of People Living with Dementia Shadreck Mwale University of West London	Knowing you, knowing me? Egg donation, ‘medical need’ and the limits of donor anonymity Christina Weis De Montfort University	Improving care and support for survivors of sexual violence: prospectively applying Ostrom's principles as a methodological innovation to foster sustainable collaboration Bertil Lindenfalk Jönköping University	Candidacy and the ‘ED logic’: an ethnographic study of physical illness diagnosis in emergency departments, for patients with a concurrent mental health condition Archana Jayaprakash University of Cambridge	Self-care and breathlessness: minimising the threats of self-care in the PrimaryBreathe co-design study Sarah Hoare University of Cambridge	Using photovoice to improve the healthcare of frail older people: initial photovoice findings from the Frailty & Ethnicity Study Victoria Cluley University of Nottingham
14:00-14:30	ECR Event		Researching Post-Mastectomy Narratives Jacqueline Cochrane Open University	The rhythms of the ward: Using rhythm analysis to understand the experiences of care for people living with dementia across an acute hospital admission Andy Northcott University of West London	Frozen not thawed: Why are so few women returning to use their previously frozen eggs in fertility treatment? Kylie Baldwin De Montfort University	Researcher, mediator, mother, advocate or activist? Exploring shifting researcher identities and positionalities in rare disease research Catherine Coveney Loughborough University	Futures with Cancer: Exploring Risk and Help-seeking Narratives Following an ‘all-clear’ Cancer Diagnosis Chloe Phillips University of Oxford	“I think you get, not brainwashed ... but I think something changes in you ... God knows why to be honest, some magic hormonal thing”. Mothers’ perceptions of the relationships between post -partum hormonal shifts their parenting behaviours, beliefs, and wellbeing Hilllary Collins University of Glasgow	Accounting for ‘race’ and racialisation in the dementia care inequalities for minority ethnic older people: beyond white framings of ethnicity and ‘culture’ Maria Zubair University of Leicester
14:35-15:05	ECR Event		The gap between political fertility narratives and women’s lived experiences: An example from India Alankrita Anand University of York	Conceptualising Preparation for Surgery: Experiences from a co-design study into preparation of patients undergoing amputations Esmee Hanna De Montfort University	How families affected by Turner syndrome challenge and reframe reproductive timing stigma Kriss Fearon De Montfort University	Navigating the complexity of peerness: examples and reflections from participatory research into minoritised experiences of MS care Sharifa Battashi Queen Mary University of London	Escaping liminality: A qualitative exploration of the journey to heart failure diagnosis Clare Goyder University of Oxford	A new era: Changes to informal caring relationships with people with dementia- a qualitative interview study Sasha Lewis-Jackson University of Oxford	Surviving stomach bugs in UK ethnic groups Iram Zahair University of Liverpool

BSA Medical Sociology Group Annual Conference

15:10-15:40	ECR Event		Dysclused mothers: the experiential and embodied stories of women mothering autistic children Juliet Hall University of Plymouth	Using normalisation process theory to evaluate the implementation of a digital health intervention in community and secondary care long COVID clinics Fiona Stevenson University college London	Just a data problem’?: The role of contested data in saving babies lives Julie Roberts University of Leicester	Utilising experience-based co-design (EBCD) to improve pre-operative care for patients undergoing an amputation Sasha Loyal De Montfort University	Diagnosis, awareness, treatment, and control of diabetes among older adults in India: a nationally representative cross-sectional study, 2019-2021 Sumit Ram Banaras Hindu University	The unspoken truth in disability talk Clare Butler Newcastle University	Exploring Perceptions of British South Asians and barriers faced on accessing Drug and Alcohol Treatment Services Zeb Sattar Northumbria University
15:45-16:15	Pitch and Mix Event		Understanding the Lived Experiences of Women Managing Problematic Menstruation in the Nigerian Banking Profession Juliet Nwafor Heriot-watt University	Improving the involvement of people with learning disabilities, people living with dementia and stroke survivors in nursing care decisions on acute hospital wards. Why is it so difficult? Jo Hope University of Southampton	The enduring impact of COVID-19 lockdown restrictions on adverse birth and pregnancy outcomes, and associated inequalities: a qualitative study in England Iona Hindes Queen Mary University London	Being an immigrant ethnographer in a contemporary NHS setting: shifting constantly along the insider-outsider continuum Tanvi Rai University of Oxford	Exploring perceptions and experiences of NHS Breast Screening for socio-economically disadvantaged women in Yorkshire Emily Lunn Hull York Medical School	Post-Diagnostic Ambivalence: Exploring the Lived Experiences of Women diagnosed in adulthood with Autism and ADHD in the UK Emma Craddock Birmingham City University	An intersectional study of family carers: Examining the interaction between ethnicity and young adulthood to develop appropriate support Chandini Subramanyam University of Leicester
16:20-16:50	Pitch and Mix Event		How paediatric patients and their families emotionally respond to, understand and value seeing images of injuries, diseases and conditions from medical imaging: A qualitative systematic review Natalie Tyldesley-Marshall University of Birmingham	Decision-making about broad spectrum antibiotic prescribing for suspected maternal sepsis during childbirth: A qualitative study Carol Kingdon University of Liverpool	Challenging the Gift of Life Discourse: A Qualitative Comparative Analysis of Donor Family Experiences in the United Kingdom and Chile Stephanie Parsons Anglia Ruskin University, London	Reflections on conducting longitudinal qualitative research: a Long Covid project Sarah Akhtar Baz University of York	Diagnostic ambivalence and conflicted biomedical selves: clinician perspectives on navigating meanings of diagnosis when supporting people with possible endometriosis Sharon Dixon University of Oxford	Using Photovoice to illustrate the experiences of women who use or are in treatment for drug use in the immediate postpartum period Emma Smith King's College London	Hansen's Illness and Sociocultural Epidemiology in the Brazilian Amazon: A Case Study at Vila Santo Antonio do Prata. Maria Beldi Alcantara University of Sao Paulo

17:00-18:00: Opening Plenary: Wood-Scawen Room inside the Warwick Arts Centre
18:00-19:00: Poster Presentation and SHI Drinks Reception (NO ROOM ALLOCATED)

BSA Medical Sociology Group Annual General Meeting

Thursday 12 September – Morning
07:00-09:30 Breakfast-Rootes Building

Room	0.09 Furniture movable	0.10 Furniture movable	0.08 Furniture movable	0.17 Furniture movable	0.11 Furniture Fixed	0.13 Furniture Fixed	0.18 Furniture Fixed	0.19 Furniture Fixed	0.20 Furniture Fixed
Stream	Politics and Ethics Theory	Spare Room	Experiences of Health and Illness	Mental Health	Embodiment and Emotion	Citizenship and Health	Open	Professions and Health Care Organisations	Inequality and Intersectionality
Chair
09:00-09:30	How Professionals and Policy Construct Self-Neglect in Health, Social Care and Beyond: A qualitative study in England David Orr University of Sussex		SPECIAL EVENT New Dialogues Between Medical Sociology and Disability Studies Janice McLaughlin Newcastle University Papers: Expressivist objections to prenatal screening and testing: perceptions of people living with disability Gareth Thomas Cardiff University “I am more than just my label” – Rights, fights, validation, negotiation. Exploring theoretical debates on childhood disability with disabled young people. Geraldine Brady Nottingham Trent University Leaky bodies in the workplace: an opportunity for dialogues between medical sociology and disability studies? Jennifer Remnant Strathclyde University	“Boy's don't cry"?: Men's mental health in the music industry Emma Williams De Montfort University	Young people’s sexual wellbeing: a life-history study Raquel Boso Perez University of Glasgow	Alignment, liminality and disruption in social media visuals of BRCA hereditary cancer syndromes Stefania Vicari University of Sheffield	Jokes, Talk and Support in Men’s Hair Loss Journeys Paul Hodkinson University of Surrey	What role can Internationally Educated Health Professionals play in shaping vaccine attitudes in their communities? Krithika Subbiah University of Waterloo and York University	Alcohol consumption and gender binarism: a posthuman feminist materialist analysis of drinking occasions Serena Vicario University of Kent
09:35-10:05				Talking mental health? Exploration of gendered assumptions within sport-based health promotion initiatives Christopher Elsey De Montfort University	‘We are not witches!’: Commercial surrogacy and the construction of the moral reproductive subject in India Aishwarya Chandran University of Sussex	Can online medical discourse be regulated? A study of new policy initiatives between UK medical authorities and YouTube Aj Earley University of Leicester	Men's sheds and participant capital, capability and structurally transformative health-relevant agency Steven Markham University of Oxford	Disparate Perspectives on Quality between Healthcare Providers and Management in Home Care Nursing: An Ethnographic Study Jörg W. Kirchhoff Østfold University College	Crafting a Good Life on the Margins Eleanor Kashouris Newcastle University
10:10-10:40	‘We have the fatwa but...’: Bioethical decision-makings in an IVF clinic in Iran Sara Bamdad De Montfort University			Community competencies and young people's mental health in Colombia: examining the case of a human capital building programme through a ‘capabilities approach’ lens Sara Donetto Brighton and Sussex Medical School	How people treat discomfort through affects? Reconceptualising therapy, care, and healing Taoyi Yang Free University of Berlin	Immigrant experiences of mistreatment in sexual and reproductive healthcare in Spain. Simon Fern Rice University	Prostate cancer and banal nationalisms in medicine: a Japanese urological gaze Genaro Castro-Vazquez Kansai Gaidai University	The organisation of policing occupational health charities Helena King Open University	Everyday Life Conditions and Healthcare Inequality for Individuals with Lung Cancer Not Participating in Rehabilitation Mikala Erlik UCSF
10:45-11:15	Investigating Contracepting and its dimensions Marie Larsson University of Edinburgh			The Impact of Sarah Everard’s Disappearance on Depressive Symptoms Across Gender and Geography Bartholomew Konechni Sciences Po Paris	Misoprostol and mifepristone in Argentina: The changing affective lives of the two abortion drugs after legalisation Lea Happ King's College London	“Who are they”? – Understanding Citizen’s stories of participation in health research panels and understanding how lived experiences shape participation in health research Jonas Stage Copenhagen University	Privileges, unbearable lightness of masculinity and middle age crisis of ageing men Iva Smidova Masaryk University	Risk negotiation in Emergency Medical Services: A model for multidisciplinary research. Shawnea Sum Pok Ting University of Warwick	Is Pregnancy Work?—An Institutional Ethnography of Invisibilized Maternal Work and Dalit Motherhood(s) in Urban India Pragya Roy University of Sheffield

BSA Medical Sociology Group Annual Conference

11:20-11:50	State power, state theory and a structuralist institutional insulation in pharmaceutical spending Ben Main Durham University		Growing up with Disability and Chronic Illness: The Significance of Institutional Responses and Intersectional Inequalities in Shaping Living with Difference Janice McLaughlin Newcastle University	“What’s the point?”: Epistemic injustice and young people’s reported speech in their mental health case notes Tessa Morgan University of Cambridge	The impact of work on children’s health, who engaged in the informal weaving sector in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia Garedew Desta The Organization for Social Science Research in Eastern and Southern Africa (OSSREA)	A Study on Online Local Community Design to Improve Health Literacy of the Elderly -The Case of Minami Alps City: Utilizing a Decentralized Personal Data Application and Online Survey for Communities Desired by Elderly Kenichi Shibata Tamagawa University	Therapy Embedded in Local Support System: Autism-related Therapy in Japan’s ‘Ryoiku’ Sawako Shinomiya University of Exeter	NICE Ideology and Reality: 25 Years of Pharmaceutical Cost-Effectiveness Regulation in the UK John Abraham King's College London	Snatch 22- How ‘normal curve’ analogies restrict menstrual health knowledge and practices Sally King King's College London
11:55-12:25	Barriers to health services for residents in underserved wards in East and West Birmingham Alexis Paton Aston University		Flexible bodies, rigid boxes: the construction, classification, and diagnosis of hypermobility disorders Melissa Martin Cardiff University	The role of guilt and shame in forensic psychiatric assessment and treatment Piyush Pushkar University of Manchester	Involuntary psychiatric detention in public spaces: Crisis and mental health disclosure in professional sport Hannah Jones De Montfort University	Impact of Local self-governments through community members during COVID-19: An Ex Post Facto Analysis on the Panchayats in Rural Kerala Kiran Prakash V Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur	Community power, charity and healthcare at the edge of a National Health Service Ellen Stewart University of Glasgow	Teaching patients pain management: examining e-learning practices Anette Lykke Hindhede UCSF Center for Health Research/University of Copenhagen	Experts by experience: working with Travellers in Lincolnshire to improve access to healthcare Laura Way University of Roehampton

12:30-14:00: Lunch (Room TBC)
12:45-13:45: BSA Medical Sociology Group Annual General Meeting (S0.10)

BSA Medical Sociology Group Annual General Meeting

Thursday 12 September – Afternoon

Room	0.09 Furniture movable	0.10 Furniture movable	0.08 Furniture movable	0.17 Furniture movable	0.11 Furniture Fixed	0.13 Furniture Fixed	0.18 Furniture Fixed	0.19 Furniture Fixed	0.20 Furniture Fixed
Stream	Patient- Professional Interaction	Spare Room	Mental Health	Health Service Delivery	Lifecourse	Professions	Critical Public Health	STS and Medicine	Theory
Chair
14:00-14:30	“I want to get out... I’ve got a child at home”: intersubjectivity and reality disjunctures in the care of people living with dementia. Alison Pilnick Manchester Metropolitan University		Migrant Chinese women's online social support in the UK and its impact on their postnatal mental wellbeing Siyi Wang University of Sheffield	The geopolitics of Covid-19 variants: genetic sequencing and technology governance during the pandemic Edison Bicudo Aston University	It’s really easy to fall under the radar and get lost” – being unseen in postpartum care pathways after hypertensive pregnancy Lisa Hinton University of Oxford	Choosing to study medicine: How minority ethnic 6th Form students make that choice Ashok Patnaik University of Birmingham	Doing Gender, Doing Sex with Alcoholic Bitters in Heterosexual Relationships Emeka Dumbili University College Dublin	The Hidden Algorithms in Molecular Tumor Boards and the Widening Gap between Research and Care Dominik Hofmann Bielefeld University	Theorising stigma emergence and mutation over time Hannah Farrimond University of Exeter
14:35-15:05	Moral evaluation in the age of liberal individualism: revisiting Parsons sick role in four English emergency departments Bella Wheeler University of Oxford		Evidencing a suicide epidemic: logics and practices of documenting suicides in Tharparkar, Pakistan Laila Rajani University of Edinburgh	Powerless or powerful? Contested narratives surrounding organisations’ engagement with those affected by safety incidents Polina Mesinioti University of York	Longer-living older adults and the embodiment of “successful” ageing: a sociology of class and ageing in place Kate Gibson Newcastle University	How far can you go? Ethnic minority doctors’ choice of specialty in medicine Christian Darko University of Birmingham	A sociological eye at the development of ‘palliative care’ in Denmark Helle Timm UCSF - Centre for Health Research	Constructing Ethnic Disease? Geneticization of Alcoholism, Media Representation and the Stigmatized Identity of the Indigenous Peoples in Taiwan Yu-Yueh Tsai Academia Sinica	Recovering Erving Goffman in medical sociology Gareth Thomas Cardiff University
15:10-15:40	Goblins and bugbears in the waiting room: updating Arber and Sawyer’s classic study of GP reception work using ethnography in eight English general practices. Catherine Pope University of Oxford		Depression, Anxiety and Their Major Risk Factors Among the Ukrainian Female Refugee Population in Czechia and Ireland Iryna Mazhak RCSI University of Mercian and Health Sciences	Modern general practice access: digital, efficient and equitable? Sara Shaw University of Oxford	Theorising perceptions and experiences of multiple long-term conditions: insights from a study with the Mass Observation Project Sue Bellass Manchester Metropolitan University	An exploration of medical students’ understanding of the causes of health inequalities, and what they believe they can do in their professional roles to counteract them. Rachel Earnshaw Lancaster University	Gluten-free food environments for people with coeliac disease: Are we considering equity? Maria Jesus Vega-Salas Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile	You are what (bugs) you eat: Metabolising microbes, meaning and modernity Katherine Kenny University of Sydney	Theorising Models of ‘Care’ from a Disability Politics Perspective Ioana Cerasella Chis University of Birmingham
15:40-16:00					BREAK
16:00-16:30	Multi-layered uncertainties in the interactions between healthcare professionals, patients and caregivers in the context of palliative care: the role of general nurses Eliska Vokralova Charles University		Connection Café set up	An idle mind is devil's workshop: transactional sex and adverse sexual and reproductive health outcomes among young women in urban slums during the COVID-19 pandemic lockdown in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa Obasanjo Bolarinwa York St. John University	Beyond autonomy vs. paternalism: an exploration of the moral politics of assisted dying eligibility criteria in Canada Janna Bryson University of Cambridge	Professional Identity and Moral distress in nursing and midwifery leadership Claire Leader Northumbria University	Navigating tensions: Boundary work in interdisciplinary post-abortion contraception research collaboration Nicola Boydell University of Edinburgh	Understanding DIY health Kate Weiner University of Sheffield	Materializing Privilege: Weaving to Withdraw from Aesthetic Preoccupation in the Mind-Body Industry Elizabeth Mckibben Victoria University of Wellington

BSA Medical Sociology Group Annual Conference

16:35-17:05	“Change made” from Care Opinion stories: Defining improvement and how it is enabled through care experiences posted online Emma Berry University of Aberdeen		Connection Cafe	Complicating candidacy: navigating inequities to dental access for individuals with severe mental illness. Louise Laverty University of Manchester	Co-producing loneliness in relations of care Karen Willis Victoria University	The Golden Ticket? Widening Participation in UK Medicine and the Making of an Emotional Proletariat Louise Ashley QMUL	The strive for normalcy in the contested space of birth Nicole Thualagant University of Roskilde	Smart Pharmakon and the Softwarization of Drugs: Reimagining Therapy Katerina Sideri Panteion University	State withdrawal, health capital and emerging forms of inequalities among Danish patients - A mixed method Bourdieuan and Buryan analysis Kristian Larsen UCSF
17:10-17:40	Exploring the Role of Risk and Uncertainty in Women’s Childbirth Choices Georgia Clancy University of Nottingham		Connection Cafe	Strange Bedfellows: Sociological reflections on the role of legal support in clinical settings Stefanie Plage University of Queensland	‘You kind of want the world to stop, and it did’: Shared experiences of widowhood during and following Covid-19 Tracy Collins Northumbria University	From Policy to Practice: Nurses as Instruments in Health Policy Implementation Camilla Bernild Region Hovedstaden	Spirituality and its Impact on COVID-19 Patients’ Health-related Quality of Life: A Cross-sectional Study from Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Pakistan Dr Aman Ullah University of Swabi	Exploring Patients' Health Capital: Inequalities in navigating Disease in Real-life Contexts Mette Roerth University of Copenhagen	The space between health and illness as a diagnostic of practices of health: practices of self-care in and around the space of suboptimal health Lijiaozi Cheng University of Sheffield

18:45-19:30 Drinks reception (TBC)

19:30-23:00 Conference dinner (TBC)

Friday 13 September – Morning
07:00-09:30 Breakfast (Room TBC)
09:30-10:30: Closing Plenary: Wood-Scawen Room inside the Warwick Arts Centre

Room	0.09 Furniture movable	0.10 Furniture moveable	0.08 Furniture movable	0.17 Furniture movable	0.11 Furniture Fixed	0.13 Furniture Fixed	0.18 Furniture Fixed	0.19 Furniture Fixed	0.20 Furniture Fixed
10.30 – 10.45					BREAK
Stream	Mental Health	Spare Room	Pedagogy and Methods	Experiences of Health and Illness	Lifecourse	Critical Public Health	STS and Medicine	Health Care Organisations	Patient- Professional Interaction
Chair
10:45-11:15	The application and reflection of remote measurement technology in mental health Haoyang Liu University of Sheffield		SPECIAL EVENT How should medical sociology respond to “imposter participants”? Anna Dowrick University of Oxford Tom Witney University College London Jaime Garcia Iglesias University of Edinburgh	Explanation for symptoms and biographical repair in a clinic for persistent physical symptoms Tom Sanders Northumbria University	"The existential crunch that is middle age": exploring the experiential impact of life course events on the psychosocial wellbeing of women at midlife in the UK Jacqui Merchant University of Sunderland	SPECIAL EVENT Corporate and philanthropic actors: the ‘invisible hand’ in public health? Benjamin Hanckel Western Sydney University Presenters: Judith Green University of Exeter Rob Raiston University of Edinburgh Emma Garnett University of Exeter	“Well, this shouldn't hurt, I don't know what's wrong with you”: exploring the tensions between contraceptive patient experience and medical evidence-based knowledge Adele Moore University of Liverpool	Dilemmas of collaboration: Open purpose and Primary Care Networks Simon Bailey University of Kent	Undiscussed spaces and self-surveillance: exploring patient and healthcare professional perspectives surrounding at-home fetal Doppler use Rosa Mackay University of Oxford
11:20-11:50	Mental Health of Domestic Workers: A Sociological Study in Delhi mental health Sada Sada Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University			Complex emotions and repositioning the self: the lived experience of solid organ transplant recipients Siân Russell Newcastle University	Buying time: terminal prognosis, temporal uncertainty and the costs of metastatic breast cancer. Sophie Lewis University of Sydney		Pharmaceutical regimes: People, Pills and Politics Paul Martin University of Sheffield	“We are draining NHS resources by sending people to hospital for basic needs”: How a lack of embedded Healthcare Professionals in Police Custody impacts detainees, police and wider healthcare delivery Gethin Rees Newcastle University	“Are they a sensible patient?” Respiratory clinicians’ views on offering patients emergency medication packs for COPD self-management after exacerbation Karolina Kuberska University of Cambridge

BSA Medical Sociology Group Annual Conference

11:55-12:25	The “One in Five” – study: An interdisciplinary exploration of poor mental health and self-injurious behavior in the adolescent, general non-diagnosed Danish population. Mental health Kirstine Roll Vestergaard UCSF - Center for Health Science Research at Rigshospitalet			Healthcare Access in Police Custody Healthcare as Denied Care: Stigma and Dehumanisation Whilst Detained in Police Custody in England, UK Stephanie Mulrine Newcastle University	Religious and Spiritual Beliefs and Practices of First-time Pregnant Muslim Women during Pregnancy: A Phenomenological Investigation in Punjab, Pakistan Muhammad Rizwan Safdar University of the Punjab		How are vaccines ‘domesticated’? Vaccination inside and outside the clinic Pru Hobson-West University of Nottingham	Working as a system? Community health services, hospital avoidance and Ostrom’s ‘common pool resources’ in Integrated Care Systems Mhorag Goff University of Manchester
12:30-13:00	‘The Knife in My Hand Can Cut My Baby’s Body in the Womb’: An Exploration of Pregnancy related Superstitious Beliefs and Practices of Educated Muslim Women in Punjab, Pakistan Hira Siddique Government Fatima Jinnah Post-graduate College for Women, Lahore			Remembering and Forgetting HIV and COVID-19: Gay Men’s Experiences in a UK Context Sophie Atherton University of Edinburgh	Institutional readiness and digital technologies: the adoption of telemedicine services in Bangladesh Shamama Alam Aston University		Capitalism and the ‘commercial determinants of health’: a more-than-human analysis of ‘unhealthy’ food consumption Nick Fox University of Huddersfield	In Between: Narratives of 'Good' Care Seray Bircan Afsin University of Illinois	Informal caregivers’ perceptions of changing behaviours that challenge dementia care in the home setting: A qualitative study Suzanne li University of Oxford

13:00-14:00: Lunch (Room TBC)