

The HES-SO University of Applied Sciences and Arts Western Switzerland, Geneva, is recruiting for the HETS School of Social Work a:

POST-DOCTORATE RESEARCHER / ACADEMIC ASSOCIATE UAS in social sciences specialised in mixed methods, at 70%

The associated researcher will work on a 36 month project on the life course of children of migrants and their transition to adulthood. This project is part of the NCCR LIVES. The team is composed of Professors Claudio Bolzman, Milena Chimienti and Jean-Marie Le Goff.

Mission:

- Quantitative analysis on existing data basis (LIVES-FORS-COHORT and TREE) in the field of the transition to adulthood of children of migrants;
- Conducting and analysing qualitative interviews in different cities in Switzerland;
- Managing a team of interviewers.

Profile:

- PhD in social sciences with a specialisation in mixed methods;
- Expertise in quantitative and qualitative methods;
- Knowledge on migration studies, youth and life course research would be a plus, ideally previous field experience;
- Fluent in French and English, knowledge in German would be a plus;
- Ability to work as part of a team and independently;
- Good organisation skills.

Characteristics of the position:

The successful candidate will be initially offered a 1 year contract, renewable twice (36 months in total), subject to Swiss private law and the SNSF salary scale.

Deadline for applications: 15.06.2019

Starting date: 01.09.2019

Workplaces: University of Applied Sciences and Arts, School of Social Work and University of Lausanne

The HES-SO Geneva / HETS and UNIL are an equal opportunity employer and in favour of diversity.

Please submit your full application (CV and Cover letter of academic degrees) by mail to rh.hets@hesge.ch

For additional information, please contact Prof. Chimienti at the following email address: Milena.Chimienti@hesge.ch